Policy & Procedure 3 - Applying for Accreditation of Sonography Courses

1. Preamble

As the aim of ASAR is to promote the best and most relevant sonography education its primary role in course accreditation is to ensure these objectives are adequately met. This policy details how a Course Provider is to apply for accreditation and how that application is processed by ASAR.

This policy document is one part of an accreditation framework, which reflects a commitment to a consistent approach to accreditation. It is within this framework that courses are granted accreditation for a specified time, having met all of the defined requirements.

2. Policy Principles

These policy and procedures have been developed to assist Course Providers seeking course accreditation or reaccreditation with ASAR against the Standards for the Accreditation of Sonography Courses (SASC) and to assist staff within ASAR to ensure the application procedures are conducted in accordance with the accreditation principles identified below.

2.1. Eligibility

Only applications which have been deemed eligible for accreditation, in accordance with the Policy & Procedures for Determining Eligibility for Accreditation of Courses, will be considered.

2.2. Applicants

The applicant must be the course provider.

2.3. Standards for the Accreditation of Sonography Courses

To be accredited courses must be assessed as successfully meeting all criteria for all eight SASC.

3. Accreditation Principles

The accreditation principles underpinning the approach to accreditation are:

Legitimacy

The accreditation procedure must be legitimate and acceptable to stakeholders. Such legitimacy includes impartiality in relation to particular stakeholder groups; and appropriate respect for the academic autonomy of course providers. The accreditation procedure must also be consistent with current legislation and guidelines.

Australian Sonographer Accreditation Registry (ASAR)

Courses

Validity

The accreditation procedure must be valid in that the procedures are appropriate for assessing the determination of criteria. These criteria must be evidence-based and explicitly related to the necessary graduate competency outcomes and other specified purposes of the accreditation procedure. The period and status of accreditation must be appropriate to the nature of the programs and developments in the professional field.

Efficiency

The accreditation procedure must cover what is necessary and sufficient and not be unnecessarily burdensome for course providers, Course Assessment Committee members or other participants.

Accountability & Transparency

The accreditation procedure and its outcomes should also be transparent to stakeholders and the public as long as appropriate confidentiality and protection of privacy is maintained.

Procedural fairness

The accreditation Procedure must meet the principles of procedural fairness.

Quality and improvement

The accreditation procedures and criteria should facilitate the development of programs of the highest academic and professional quality and facilitate the continuous improvement of programs over the period for which they are accredited.

Ongoing cycle of review

The accreditation procedures must undergo an ongoing cycle of review to maintain consistency with these principles and for ongoing improvement.

4. Scope

This policy applies to:

1. Course Providers wishing to apply for ASAR course accreditation
2. Course Providers wishing to apply for ASAR course reaccreditation

Applications for course accreditation must be received at least 12 months prior to the proposed starting date of the new course. This lead time is required in order to provide sufficient time for ASAR to fully consider the application and to complete the accreditation procedures.

Course providers who have courses coming up for reaccreditation will be notified by the ASAR Secretariat at least 12 months prior to reaccreditation date.

7. Fees

There will be no fees charged to applicants for course accreditation.
